“ Margie Cain was a grand lady who left a positive influence to everyone who knew her. Our hearts are heavy with loosing Margie. Although we may feel a hole in our hearts today, if we look close, Margie left us great memories to fill that void. Margie could relate everyday occurrences into story-telling events - whether it was Lucy eating the chocolate cake or a night babysitting with Emma. Margie loved John Wayne - don't turn off that TV even if you think she was napping! . And she had deep love and admiration for her children. But mostly Margie would just light up when the grandchildren and great-grandchildren would visit. She related to everyone to make them welcome and comfortable. Margie was never more relaxed than when she was at the beach and she enjoyed sharing that experience with family. We could be sure that every Christmas we would get a "beach ornament". If, on a rare occasion it wasn't a beach-theme, we'd know it was still bought at the beach and Margie would know the exact shop she bought them in, too! My prayers and love go out to her family and friends. Thanks for sharing Margie with us. Kathy Cain, Jeni Buchanan, Josh Cain & Michael Cain

“ To all of the family and friends, Our thoughts are with you at this very sad time. Loving someone that has brought so much to your life, is a true blessing. Always keep your memories close and we pray that they will comfort you in the future.
