

Marjorie J. King

August 31, 1922 - July 4, 2012

Was the oldest child of Sam and Zola Dull. "Bud" (deceased) and Duane (now of St. Louis Park, MN) followed. After completing her nursing education at Presbyterian Hospital in Pittsburgh, she joined Capital Airlines as a stewardess at a time when only RNs were hired to fly on DC3. Within the same year, she met and married a handsome Soldier, George King. They became the parents of seven children: Judy (husband Tom); Lynn (husband AL); George (wife Kathy); David (partner Jerry); Sue Ellen (husband Greg); Peter (wife Kristy); and Deborah (husband Jon). God Blessed them with 22 grandchildren, and many great-grandchildren.

In Lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to New Tribes Mission, and The Gideons.

“ To all of the King children and your families, We are so sorry to have missed the memorial for Marjorie. We were out of town. Hazen and I both have many precious memories of her. She was always warm, genteel, and truly glorified The Lord. I have thought of her often over the last 27 years while raising our children. She was a wonderful wife, mother and grandmother whose love and grace for her family was evident. We are blessed to have known her.

“ We had the privilege of knowing the King family when we worshiped at Engleside Baptist Church many yrs ago. What an outstanding couple George and Marjorie were with all those kids in tow. Lots of good memories from those days. Our Heavenly Father is taking up His precious roses....we lost our dear mom, Louise last yr at the age of 89. You will miss her so much in the days ahead...before long though the tears will become smiles and you shall think of her with joy in your hearts knowing she is in Heaven safe in our Savior's arms. God's blessings on each one of you.

“ In our days as roommates at Moody Bible Institute, Lynn would tell me stories of the King family. She is quite the storyteller and I loved the tales of love, laughter and life in the King household. It was clear to me that a legacy of solid faith and strong family ties started with her parents. I hope you seven "King" children and families will carry on what began with George and Marjorie. And may you experience God's peace during these days.

“ Judy, Lynn, George, David, Peter, Sue Ellen, Deborah and families: We have been truly blessed with our Angel on earth, Aunt Marjorie and saddened by her passing. My fondest memory was the summer when I was 12 and took the train from PA to Alexandria to visit my cousins for a week. Aunt Marjorie was pregnant at the time--Lynn and I were lying in the sun in the back yard and Aunt Marjorie had a basket of wet clothes to hang on the clothes line--she put the basket down and took the time to sit and talk with us--rather than take care of laundry first. Thank you, Lord for giving us this very special lady for 89 years. Love, Barbara & Rich

“Mauny and I deeply regret that we were not able to attend the memorial of our much beloved Aunt Marjorie. For me, she was not only an aunt, but a sometime mother who tucked me in at night as a child, and in my later years, a girlfriend, who shared with me over a cup of coffee. Her gentle spirit combined with her humor were a winning combo. How we will miss her!”
