“ I am in great shock to learn I will no longer be sailing with my friend. We spent many an afternoon enjoying our talks, feeling the summer breeze upon our faces, and enjoying the summer sun. Baltimore's Inner Harbor will not be the same without you. You were a great sailing instructor and I will miss you dearly.

“ There was no one quite like Marsha. Within the first week of law school she was inviting you over to her tiny apartment and you immediately felt at home in her company. She was smart, sweet, funny, strong. And how she loved her sailing and of course her Larry. She will be greatly missed.
