

Mary Shannon Bellimam

April 16, 1967 - April 27, 2023

Mary Shannon Bellimam of Alexandria, Virginia passed away on Thursday, April 27, 2023, after a long battle with Polycystic Kidney Disease. She is preceded in death by her father, William Clarence Coombs and her stepfather Leroy B. Spivey. Shannon is survived by her husband, Moulay Youssef Bellimam, her children, Jack Bellimam and MacKenzie Bellimam, mother, Bettie C. Coombs-Spivey, brother, Michael Sean Coombs (Angie), niece, Alex and nephew, Aidan.

Shannon was born on April 16, 1967 in Alexandria, Virginia. She graduated with her Master's degree from National Louis University in 1997. After graduation, she began her career with the U.S. government at the U.S. Department of State, the Navy Department, the Federal Communications Commission and again at the U.S. Department of State. Shannon and Youssef married in March 1996.

Shannon loved travelling, being an active mom, and spending quality time with her friends and family. She was the life of the party and always knew how to make everyone smile. No matter the occasion, Shannon knew how to celebrate – from planning cruises and birthday parties to the kids' sporting events. She was a free spirit who enjoyed going where the wind would take her. Some of her favorite destinations included Croatia, Amsterdam, and Ireland.

A memorial service will be held on May 13, 2023 at Jefferson Funeral Chapel starting at 11:00AM. Memorial contributions may be made to The National Kidney Foundation (https://support.kidney.org/give/459746/#!/donation/checkout?amount=25&recurring=0&utm\_campaign=FY2024\_Direct\_Response&c\_src=DonateRedirect) in Shannon's honor.
