“ My thoughts and condolences go out to Diane, Steve, and the rest of the family. Having worked closely with and known Diane for many years, I have seen the extraordinary dedication she demonstrated toward her mother, which speaks volumes of the obvious love she felt and showed toward her mom as well.

“ I feel truly lucky that our Pumphrey family had the chance to grow up so close to each other with such wonderful and special Aunts and Uncles. Aunt Mary was one of the best, always present, there for us, With her departure, the burden falls to us first cousins, the next generation, to carry on what we've been taught about family.
