“ I will miss you until we meet again, Beautiful! I am so thankful the Lord allowed our paths to cross on this earth and that he gave me you as a prayer warrior. Your faithful prayers led me to a wonderful man I now call my husband. I pray I can be the Christian wife, mother, friend, and giver you were. I love you, friend!

“ Mary, you will be missed more than you could have ever known. It's amazing to see how consistently people have wonderful things to say about you. About how you somehow made every single person you came into contact with feel like your favorite person in the world and you sincerely felt that way too! Thank you for giving me an example that I will strive for my entire lifetime to live up to. Love you beautiful! - Erin

“ My sweet friend - we shared a lot of memories together beginning when we were little girls in Starke, Fl. I will always remember those times together - church and school events, the graduation party at your house and then sharing our lives together as we grew up. Thank you for your love, hugs, energy and encouragement. You were an inspiration to so many. Our last talk was about getting my latest teaching job where you prayed with me and encouraged me. Every time I step into that classroom I will think of you and I will give my students the same love and encouragement you gave me. Your legacy will go on. Thank you beautiful. I will miss you but am at peace knowing I will see you again in heaven. I love you. Tina Best Bassett
