“ Jim, I've sat at table 6 in Sunday School with you and Mary for about 9 years thus far. It will not be the same at table 6 without my Mary. I miss her so much! I've never met such a sweet person. She welcomed me with open arms, and treated me like a daughter, knowing that I didn't have a mother since I was 4 years old. Mary was a wonderful blessing in my life.

You and Mary were the perfect example of how marriage should be, and Dave and I thank you for being that wonderful example.

Mary, I miss and love you dearly. You are such a beautiful soul...Heaven is so lucky to have such an angel!! Spread those wings Mary!!! Until we meet again my friend.

I love you!
