“ We offer our deepest condolences to the Rabinowitz family on the passing of Max last weekend. As fellow Club members at Springfield I enjoyed several rounds of golf with Max over the years. And, during most of those rounds Sylvia shared his cart, as well as the ups and downs of his game. Max was a true gentleman and an interesting conversationalist. Despite the sadness you feel with this great loss may your lifetime of memories sustain you now and into the future. God bless you all and may Max Rest In Peace. Walt and Caroline Szczypinski
