“ My Dearest Aunt was a constant well-spring of giving and service. Generation after generation of children grew up loved nurtured and cared for by this loving woman. She has touched and shaped so many lives.

She practically raised my younger brother and myself until after my 7th birthday. At the time the house was filled with her own children and my other cousins, but there always seemed to be enough room and enough love for every one of us.

So many of us owe so much of who we are to this loving woman. This world, and all our lives are greatly diminished without her.
