“ Alice Quinn, I never had the chance to meet you, but would like to share a few words. I met Michael almost ten years ago. When I was a fresh wine rep, here in DC. And just so happened to be placed in his store. He was rather intimidating and very knowledgeable. And he expected the best and most of you. This was a little different from other store wine buyers. Over the years which I serviced his account. I became a better sales rep, polished up my appearance. Everything I do today in this business is pretty much attributed to what he showed and taught me. The amount of information regarding wine he shared is still second to none. After I left the wholesale company., I always made time to stop at his store. We would chat about wine or what's for lunch ect., or how busy he seemed to be. But he still had time to tell me which wines to buy, and carry at my store. The man will be severely missed. I will miss our conversation. Alice Quinn, take care he changed and helped many people for the better.

“ Alice, I'm so sorry to hear of Michaels sudden passing. I have worked with him over the years at Safeway. He was always a pleasure to talk to and a real gentlemen. I often had the chance to visit with him in the last few years when he would shop here in Cherrydale. It was always a pick me up. I wish you peace as you deal with the loss. If I can assist you in anyway please let me know.

“ Dear Alice, I was extremely sorry to learn about the death of your husband. I saw the obituary in The Washington Post and then confirmed it with a former co-worker at Northrop Grumman. I'm praying that you will have strength and peace while dealing with this sudden loss. My deepest condolences to you and your family.
