“ Who would have know when we were in elementary school that you would end up being my brother in law. Graduating 6th grade and going to the dinner theater. The summers hanging out at the pool. Holidays at my grandparents and my parents with all the kids. Watching you care for your mother and father during their time of need. I'm sure they were there to receive you to your new home. I know you will continue your work watching over everyone you left behind. May you rest peacefully knowing you had a loving caring heart.

“ For 15 years you were a roll model to me. A great man with so much love for everyone. An awesome sense of humor. I hope to one day still be half the man you were. Always in my thoughts and memories. Hunt on big guy. I'll always have an ice cold Bud Light in hand for you.

“ We were a family of five when you were born. We were residing in a small two bedroom house. I told my Mom, “Oh no not another brother. Where are we going to put him.” Later as an adult you complained to me that I didn't want you. Not true little brother, from the moment the quiet little fellow with the red hair came home you stole my heart. I diapered you, fed you and endlessly strolled you up and down Roxanne Rd. From that point you were always there. When I had my first apartment you spent the weekend. You were a part of my wedding. You were there when I was in labor. We shared vacations, and the ups and downs of everyday life. I have cried on your shoulder and you have cried on mine. We shared the mutual love for our children and our nieces and nephews. You were the most generous, selfless person I have ever known. How to go forward I am not sure. I keep hearing you say my name in your own special way. Of course I will be OK, but you will be with me every step of the way. If only your tender heart could know how important you have been to so many.

“ There just isn't enough time to list the memories I have. I don't have a childhood family memory that doesn't include you. You're everyone's favorite uncle, even those who weren't actually related. You treated everyone like gold. You didn't have friends, you had family , because everyone you met became family. Your kindness, selflessness, and generosity are, and forever will be, unmatched. You are already so missed. I can only hope to be half as good as you were. The world is a much darker place without you in it.

“ There are to many memories to post, but I would like to say thank you for being a really awesome big brother to me even though we didn't have the same parents. You never made me feel any different. You was the best and now I can share those memories with my kids and make them laugh and feel like they knew you even if they didn't have a chance to meet you and I know your little brother Brian feels the same. You will always be in my heart and memories love you my Mickey mouse.
