“ My good friend and next-door neighbor, Mike, had a wonderful way of speaking the truth about life's trials. I will always remember the friendly caution he once gave me - "Remember, Jim, one day someone will whisper in your ear - Eat Your Oatmeal Mr. Green." Dee and I send our heartfelt condolences to each family member and those who were fortunate enough to call Mike their friend.

“ I remember a workshop on how to buy stocks and the speaker was going over this complicated chart. Mike leaned over and said to me, "I wonder if this guy ever tried flipping a coin? Ya know. Heads I buy; tails I don't." That was Mike. Funny, down to earth, and wise. Our thoughts are with you Judy, Michael, Jimmy and Alice. Love, Jack and Joanne Cabry

“ Dear Aunt Judy, Michael, Jimmy and Alice- our hearts are heavy over losing Uncle Mike, but in time my hope is that we'll celebrate the blessing of having had such an amazing person in our lives - someone who loved his family, friends, faith and life itself so much. He will never be forgotten for being such a kind and special soul and I am blessed to have had him as an uncle. We have lots of terrific memories from summer vacations as kids to dancing at family weddings to tug-o-wars at Walshfest!! We love you all- Patti, Steve and family
