

Mohamed L. Kamara

June 11, 1982 - June 2, 2011

Mohamed L. Kamara

On Thursday, June 2, 2011 of Woodbridge, VA.

Beloved husband of Maria E. Lopez; son of Henry Kamara and Aminatu Sheriff; also survived by two younger brothers. Relatives and friends may gather at Jefferson Funeral Chapel, 5755 Castlewellan Dr. Alexandria, VA on Friday, June 10, 2011 from 6-8 pm. Inurnment private.

Tribute Wall

“ Mohamed L. Kamara

October 27, 2022 at 09:45 PM

“ 1 file added to the album Obituary Wall

Jefferson Funeral Chapel - January 28, 2019 at 09:38 AM

“ Moe. I'll miss your laughter. Your unique personality. Your gentle soul. Your enlightening intelligence. I'll miss YOU Moe. My thoughts and condolences to your family.

June 11, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Mohamed was a very intelligent and humorous guy who I had the pleasure of working with. He taught me many things. I enjoyed our group conversations we had during lunch. So many arguments and debates but so much laughter. I send my condolences to his family.. RIP Mo.. You will be missed!!

June 10, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Always loved talking music with Mo, the guy was really a talented DJ and I was looking forward to working on music with you brotha for real. Gonna keep you in my prayers and know that we all are gonna miss you Mo.

June 10, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Mo, i'm gonna miss arguing with you, no doubt. We had some of best heated discussions ever at the GSC. Even for all we argued, we still got along and got the job done!

June 10, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Mohamed Kamara. Where to begin. Mohamed and I worked together in DC for the better part of two years. He and I started working at the WB at around the same time, trained with the same group of people. What I remember about him most was his energy, and his willingness to go the extra mile to get an assignment done. He and I also collaborated on a few support incidents. Mohamed was intelligent and wasn't afraid to show it. I sit now in complete shock and sadness. A bright light was snuffed and the world is a little darker for it. I'll miss you, Mo. This candle is for you.

June 10, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Mohamed was a complex, humorous and intelligent person. We definitely butted heads, but I truly do recall him being an inspiration when I was going through troubled times. Although I have not spoken to him since leaving my former position, I am in great shock to be notified of this news. My prayers, blessings, and condolences go out to his family and loved ones.

June 10, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I remember when MoHamed and I began to work together, we did not always see eye to eye in the beginning but as we begin to work closer together we begin to realize we are great friends. He was a great person as well as a great friend, I can not believe that he is gone. He was missed when he changed to a new company and he will be missed even more now. My condolences are with his family and everyone who has ever knew him.

June 10, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I dont even know where to begin a message or what I have been feeling since I heard the news. It is so out of character. I have known Mo since High School. We used to skip school together in Mr. Mac's class and just sit outside and talk and haha I don't even remember about what now. Then we kept in touch her and there but when he moved back from NY we saw each other more. One thing I definitely know about Mo was he was loyal. He always came to every party I had. He came out last year to celebrate my/our birthdays together. He was an amazing friend and this is really hard to take from the other end of the world let alone being at home. I talked to him on the 26th and made plans to take again soon. He told me about California and about getting married and said he would kiss the dogs for me. And now I sit here on our birthdays trying to remember all the little things that I probably took for granted. Another thing i remember about Mo was he always wanted something from wherever I went. I got him something from southeast asia, i think mexico, canada, and was supposed to get him a kangaroo from the outback. Anybody who knew him was blessed in some way. Such a fun loving guy. I hope that someday I could meet his mother, father or brothers. I heard about you some times. I am sorry for your loss and its just a terrible tragedy that has happened. Another great person taken too soon. I will strive to keep a little bit of Mo in me always. Love, Bouncy

June 07, 2011 at 12:00 AM