Loving Lilies and Roses Bouquet - November 15, 2017 at 12:00 AM

“ I will always remember Mrs. Escobar for her youthful spirit, passion to dance and the love she had for her family. She was truly a mother and a wife many could only dream of. I can still hear her voice in my head saying “ohhh yes” whenever she agreed with what I was saying or “if you’re going to twist my arm” when we would share a glass of wine.

My favorite memory we shared was a night we decided to make her Christmas tree extemely special. We went to different stores purchasing the right ornaments and embarked on a two hour long process of making the perfect Christmas tree. Just as we were about to finish and put the last touch (the star), our beautiful creation fell over and was completely destroyed. Instead of getting upset we just laughed for hours about the sorrow and then started the tree again, this time with a glass of wine.

I will keep these memories close and hope to hear your laughter again in the Kingdom of Heaven. May you rest in eternal peace!
