“ Jane, you will be missed dearly. I hold so many wonderful memories of you in my heart, a lot of them good and a few of them a little tense as John and I were growing up. Especially when we had to run for our lives down the sidewalk so we wouldn't get our butts whipped by both sets of parents!! Even though I became an adult, got married and had my own children, you and Clayton always showed us that you cared. Thank you for all of the memories and may you rest in peace.
