“ I never got to say bye or thank you for being so kind to me from the beginning till the end. You always treated me so well and you loved your children and grand children. There are times I look at Naiomi and all I see is you helping us fix her crib, one of the best memories I have while a part of the family, I see where Sean gets his Charmaine smile from. To Mrs. Aida Gordy, I never knew it or not but you where the best stepmom to Sean he alway talked about how good you where to him and how cool and understanding you where. I remember this one story Sean told me about his time in high school, and how Dad stuck up for him. I felt the need to always call Mr. Steven Gordy (dad) because he always had that kind and protective way about him. Yes, he allow his family to raised him but, what is a man to do, beside do the thing even if he wasn't able to be around all the time, but when he was everyone know it. Thank you for the blessing of my two love angels and yes, they too have your charm and know how and when to use it. These days as you know hasn't been easy but what is, I know that I wasn't left allow in left I have two wonderful people to love and care for.

“ Steven here is a poem I wrote years ago and re worked just for you. Life's Etching's Life is but a canvas for God to paint a path, A bright and colorful etching, reflecting on my past. The etching shows my treasures, for there my heart will lie My family's hearts I bring to thee they are broken as I've died. It is my greatest treasure, their love of you for me, Please fill their hearts with comfort As they always did for me Love your sister Diane
