“ It is with sadness and so many lovely memories of Nat that I accept the news of his death. I was good friends with his step-daughter, Jill, and had lots of good times enjoying Nat's company and intelligent conversation back in the late 70's and 80's. Although our paths never crossed, we were in the same ski club together- PVS. He was a wonderful, warm gentleman, and I hope those whom he left behind will find peace in knowing he had a long and fascinating life.
