“ Five years ago tomorrow was the saddest day in my life. Ever since that day, not a single moment that I don't think of you and missing you. My Darling Nick, your little boy ,Mickey, and little girl, Casey, are so good lately. They listen to me and behave so well, I wish you could see it...My Darling, I will be seeing you soon. Love always,

“ Nick was a very thoughtful, intelligent and caring person. My wife Nicolette and I knew Nick from our days at Federal Data Corporation. He was always the first one to lend a hand, give good advice and be the rock of reason. We all loved and admired Nick for his personality, expertise and congeniality. Our thoughts and prayers are with Nicks family and his fiance Thu. We will miss you

“ My condolences to the Andrelli Family, During this time of great sorrow, may it comfort you to know that others are deeply touched by your loss. I too know the pain of losing someone dear. Even though our hearts are broken, rest assure that our Grand Creator cares about you personally (1Peter5:7) and can help you though this difficult time. Revelation 21:4 speaks of a time soon when God will do away with death forever. There will be no more sorrow, heartache, or pain. May your happy memories and sure scriptural hope comfort your hearts during this painful time.
