“ My grandmother, Dora Stevens Redmiles (Dodie) was Noel's aunt- she was Grace's younger sister. My dad (Richard) counts Noel as a favorite cousin and fishing buddy and I know he will miss him. We are quite the family of characters and whenever there are Stevens descendants around there are good stories to tell. My prayers are with you all.

“ To Pat and Family. What can be said at a time like this to comfort you. May you find peace in each other and comfort in knowing Noel no longer has to suffer. It's been a long fight and Pat you have labored tirelessly with all the love,affection and strength any human being could muster and Noel loved you so much for it. Now he would want you to rest, as hard as it may be right now, and continue to shower your children, grandchildren and great- grandchildren with love and compassion just the way the both of you have always done!. We feel so fortunate to have had Noel for so many years as the best neighbor in the WORLD. A man with a heart of gold!! You and the family have our deepest sympathy and prayers and to Noel, God be with you on your flight home!

“ Your Dad is the coolest I've had the pleasure to know. Man did we all share some laughs! And he put up with us young adults who thought we knew everything, and treated us all like his own. Much love and respect to Noel for all he has accomplished in life, and all the Walter family, his legacy. In my book, Noel is a Rock Star!
