“ Granddad, You and I have always been best friends. You were always there for me growing up to put a smile on my face. All of the stories you old me my entire life never grew old (well, most of them) and I will never forget them. The trips you and I took together I will rememer most of all. Weather it was a trip to Pennsylvania to see where you grew up or a trip down skyline drive to see the leaves changing (which we did many times) or just a trip around the block have been some of the happiest moments I have had in my life. You have always been the happiest and most grateful person I have ever met in my life and you showed that to everybody. Those two things are what was best about you and what I wish to emulate most from you in my life. If all of us could share and feel only a fraction of the happiness always had then the concerns we have in life would feel insignificant. You were the best granddad anyone could ever have. I miss you and I'll love you always.

“ Dear Family I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. You can be assured that comfort and hope are found in the pages of the Bible. Revelations 21:4 speaks of a time when sorrow will be a thing of the past. I hope this message brings you a measure of hope. Please take care of yourselves. Sincerely

“ Susie, Ian, Alicia, and family, I love you, and I'm sorry for your loss. Please take some comfort in this verse from the Bible. Brothers and sisters, we want you to know about those Christians who have died so you will not be sad, as others who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and he rose again. So because of him, God will raise with Jesus those who have died. 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14
