“ Dear Family,

I am very sorry for your loss. Please accept my sincerest sympathy at this difficult time. Hold on to your sweet memories until the day that you can see your dear loved again and hold her, laugh with her and enjoy life to the full. (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15; Revelation 21:3,4)

“ May your hearts be comforted and strengthened by the hope of the resurrection—a reality as demonstrated by Jesus at John 11:39-44. There he raised Lazarus who had been dead for 4 days to life again. God promises a future earthly Paradise where Jesus will fulfill his role as “the resurrection and the life” (John 11:25). He will raise millions from death, providing them with an opportunity to live forever on earth (Matt 5:5). Envision the reunions as relatives and friends, once separated by death, embrace again! All will say: “life without end—At Last!” (Rev 21:4). Learn more at jw.org. My deepest sympathy to the Brown family for your loss.
