

Patricia Anne Chapman

January 25, 1944 - May 29, 2012

Patricia Anne Chapman, 69.

Alexandria resident Patricia Chapman, 69, died May 29, 2012, in Washington, D.C.

Ms. Chapman was born January 25, 1944 in Lake Charles, Louisiana, to Russell and Lois Stanley (Crawford).

She graduated from Lamar High School in Houston, Texas in 1962.

She married Stephen Chapman in February, 1965.

Ms. Chapman lived and worked all over the country, including Louisiana, Texas, Washington, California and Virginia.

Though she worked her entire life in the business world, Ms. Chapman's real passion was for the arts and creative pursuits. Her loves included writing, painting, crafting and travel. She was also a tireless advocate for animal rights and loved to argue politics.

She is survived by her two sons, Corry and Sean Chapman, and six grandchildren: Marie, Taylor, Madison, Noah, Iris and Aiden.

She will be missed.

Tribute Wall

“ Patricia Anne Chapman

October 27, 2022 at 09:45 PM

“ Our family is so sorry for your familys loss. We mourn with you. We also celebrate your mother/grandmothers life and all the precious memories you hold in your heart forever of her. She is resting in Jesus' arms in Heaven now and we shall see her again. Until then, may God bless you with His grace and peace. Amen. Love you all! Denise, Mark and Mark, Jr.

June 22, 2012 at 12:00 AM