“ Pat stopped by my open house a couple of years ago, just to say "hello" and she told me about her experience with the cancer that she was battling. As she related the story from the beginning, she was so calm, almost serene, about the changes the cancer and it's treatment had wrought on her body and her life. It was my pleasure to know Pat for the past 23 years and to learn about her faith in God and her love for Gordon and her children. I'm sad today to know that Pat lost the battle but happy, as a believer, in the knowledge that she is now young, beautiful, and waiting to welcome the rest of us home. When I told Pat goodbye that day, I rubbed her head "for luck". We were the lucky ones to have been her friends.
