

Patricia Gillin Short Lockman

October 16, 1942 - May 28, 2017

Patricia "Patsy" Gillin Short Lockman, aged 74, of Hartfield Virginia, passed away Sunday, May 28 2017, in Fairfax Virginia with her family by her side. Patsy was born in Washington, DC to Eleanor A. Gillin and James J. Short on October 16 1942. She was raised in Arlington and attended Washington and Lee High School and George Washington University.

Patsy was an avid reader and gardener and loved spending time outdoors. She was an active member of several Virginia native plant societies and volunteered at the State Arboretum of Virginia while she was a resident of Winchester Virginia. Patsy also enjoyed traveling, having visited Europe several times, as well as Russia, Mexico and Bermuda.

Patsy worked at several academic institutions as an administrative assistant, including Syracuse University in the Graduate Student Department, Colgate University in the Registrar's Office, and the Northern Virginia Community College in Annandale.

Patsy is survived by her husband of 55 years and Arlington native, Lee Lockman; her children Carol L. Lockman (Arthur), Michael J. Lockman (Rhoda), and Anne B. Lockman; and her two sisters Sally Caskie (Cabot) and Susy Rakay.

Services will be private. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Lupus Research Alliance (www.lupusresearch.org).
