

Paul Maxim Rodriguez

November 16, 1951 - October 26, 2013

On Saturday, October 26, 2013 of Alexandria, VA. Loving husband of Katherine A. Long; father of 3; brother of 5; grandfather of 2. Relatives and friends may call at Jefferson Funeral Chapel 5755 Castlewellan Dr. Alexandria, VA 22315, on Thursday, October 31, 2013 from 5-9 PM. Funeral Service will be held at Jefferson Funeral Chapel on Friday, November 1, 2013 at 11 AM. Interment will be held privately.

Tribute Wall

“ Paul Maxim Rodriguez

October 27, 2022 at 09:45 PM

“ i am so sorry to hear about Paul. He was a fearless investigative reporter. He was a true friend and I will never forget his kindness.
Henry Vinson

April 14, 2015 at 12:00 AM

“ Paul was a generous, hard-working and fun colleague and friend. We will all miss him greatly. My thoughts and prayers go to his family.

November 02, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Bonnie and I are in New Orleans and cannot attend services, but we extend our prayers and deepest sympathies to Kathryn and family for your loss. Paul was a friend, a very fine reporter, and a great guy. May he rest in peace!

November 01, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Blessing for a Friend and News Reporting Partner:
“Most gracious God, we give you thanks for your tender love in sending Jesus Christ to come among us, to be born of a human mother, and to make the way of the cross to be the way of life. We thank you, also, for sending to be with us Paul Maxim Rodriguez, his humble servant, who did his bidding and now, by the power of your Holy Spirit, departed this life and in your mercy been brought to that table where your saints feast for ever in your heavenly home. For his loved ones still with us, pour out the abundance of your blessings upon them; defend them from all adversity; lead them into all peace; let their love for each other be a seal upon their hearts, a mantle about their shoulders, and a crown upon their foreheads. Bless them in their work and in their companionship; in their sleeping and in their waking; in their joys and in their sorrows; in their life and in their death, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.”

Prayed by George Archibald at St. Michael the Archangel Anglican Church, Winchester, Virginia, Service of Holy Eucharist, Sunday, 9:30 AM, October 27, 2013.

Requiesat in Pacem, dear Paul. You made a difference in a lifetime that few men have matched. Well done, good and faithful servant.
(This photo was taken at my Washington Times retirement luncheon with the retired U.S. Senator Harry F. Byrd, Jr., honorary guest newsmaker who came specially for the event in the main ballroom.)

“George Archibald, your friend and brother. Your partner at The Washington Times, (1989-1994).

October 31, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“It was a shocking news to receive while I am travelling in Beijing, the city where I worked with Paul on the ICANN project. He was such an amazing man and always carried the positive attitude, even when he was sick and after surgery.

My deepest condolences to the family. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

October 31, 2013 at 12:00 AM

*“Paul and I worked closely together though we actually never met! I will always think of him fondly for his insights and generosity and send my thoughts and prayers to his family.
Lorenca*

October 31, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Blessing for a Friend and News Reporting Partner:

“Most gracious God, we give you thanks for your tender love in sending Jesus Christ to come among us, to be born of a human mother, and to make the way of the cross to be the way of life.

We thank you, also, for sending to be with us Paul Maxim Rodriguez, his humble servant, who did his bidding and now, by the power of your Holy Spirit, departed this life and in your mercy been brought to that table where your saints feast for ever in your heavenly home.

For his loved ones still with us, pour out the abundance of your blessings upon them; defend them from all adversity; lead them into all peace; let their love for each other be a seal upon their hearts, a mantle about their shoulders, and a crown upon their foreheads. Bless them in their work and in their companionship; in their sleeping and in their waking; in their joys and in their sorrows; in their life and in their death, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.”

Prayed by George Archibald at St. Michael the Archangel Anglican Church, Winchester, Virginia, Service of Holy Eucharist, Sunday, 9:30 AM, October 27, 2013.

Requiesat in Pacem, dear Paul. You made a difference in a lifetime that few men have matched. Well done, good and faithful servant. (This photo was taken at my Washington Times retirement luncheon with the retired U.S. Senator Harry F. Byrd, Jr., honorary guest newsmaker who came specially for the event in the main ballroom.)

” George Archibald, your friend and brother. Your partner at The Washington Times, (1989-1994).

*George Archibald
27 West Main Street, No. 1
Berryville, VA 22611
Telephone: 540-303-1477
Email: George Archibald*

October 31, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ It was wonderful to work with Paul and I'm so sorry for your loss. My deepest sympathies to all of his friends and family.

October 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ My sincerest sympathy to the entire Rodriguez family. Paul was a wonderful person always ready to help and give advice. Missed talking with him and exchanging ideas when he left the Island Creek community. He seemed to know which path to take and how to resolve a problem. He will be missed by all.

October 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ God bless you dear friend. Brilliant journalist, kind and thoughtful colleague--mentor to so many. You change so many lives and set the standard for excellence and professionalism. Honored to have had you as a friend. Pablo, you are in a better place without pain. Praying for peace and comfort for your great family and friends who are missing you. Duerme con los angeles, Bq

October 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Rodriguez family, you have my sincerest condolences. I have only known Paul for the last 6 months but he was a wonderful colleague and friend to me and so many people on our team. I spoke with Paul a few weeks ago for nearly an hour. I was struck by the fact that regardless of how he felt, he was asking how things were going and how he could help with new business. His energy and intellect did not flag during these last few months. Rest in peace Paul and God Bless the Rodriguez family.
Steve Lombardo

October 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Rest in peace my friend. It was great knowing you and working with you all these years. Will miss having you around in office, especially the drop by and chats. But I am so happy we were able to catch up at length a couple of months ago - that was the last time we spoke. My deepest condolences to the family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

October 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ My sincere condolences to the Rodriguez family. I had the pleasure of working with Paul for several years at Burson-Marsteller. He was thoughtful, kind and downright silly at times. I'll never forget the one Christmas he mailed our account team clown noses, because he affectionately called us his "circus" and he was the ringmaster. We'll miss you Paul!

October 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ My deepest sympathies to the Rodriguez family. Paul was a truly special and unique individual, colleague and friend. We emailed almost daily to discuss the latest trends in digital and social media. He was always the first to share an interesting article or anecdote and he was fiercely optimistic to the end. He will be sorely missed by me and so many of his friends at Burson-Marsteller.

October 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ *Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day,
Unseen, unheard, but always near,
Still loved, still missed and very dear.
Donna Hydeburg - Serrette*

October 30, 2013 at 12:00 AM