“ Linda, You are so lucky to have loved and been loved by such a special person. He and I were very close and shared so many confidences. I told him that as long as I was alive, I would stand by you through thick and thin, and I will. I feel so blessed to have been Wayne's friend and sister, he always called me "Sis", and we shared so much as friends. I will truly miss you, Wayne. Love, Carolyn

“ Wayne was one of the kindest souls I ever met. He always wanted to help in anyway he could. And he was a truly loving and devoted husband to his wife Linda, and adored his "puppies". He'll be missed by all of us for his kindness, gentleness, and intellect. Wayne's personality glowed like the brightest star in our galaxy.

“ To Linda and the rest of Wayne's family - "Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal" is a saying by Thomas Moore. I love it. We hope it might bring you some comfort at this difficult time. Please know that you have friends who pray for you and wish you well.

“ Anyone could consider themselves blessed in this life, if they could call Wayne Walker their friend. Therefore, I have been blessed beyond measure! I will forever carry wonderful memories of so many happy times, and meaningful experiences, with my best bud. There's now a hole in my life that cannot be filled until the day we meet once again. I am humbled by our last experience together. Spread those wings now, Wayne... Fly to the highest heights, stroll those streets of gold, and enjoy your renewed vigor! Oh... and keep a can of Diet Coke cold for me. I'll be so looking forward to spending time with you again. God Bless you, my friend! Linda, and family.. I will be thinking of you all, and keeping you in my prayers during my trip. I'm so sorry I cannot be with you. Danny
