“ Regina was a woman with a passion to embrace each day and to NEVER act her age. She and I made several auto trips. One was to the Veterans memorial in Porterville. She picked up on the appropriate type of roses that were planted, one of many insights she shared with me. A big memory is that she had an alarm/call system (monitored medical/emergency) in case of misfortune. I was also on the notify phone number for local immediate action. Several times she would leave the house and it would go off and I would be notified. One time I rushed over to her house (I had a key) and was going through the house looking for her. Then the police showed up - "Yeah, but what are you doing in here?" Afterward Regina and I shared a laugh. One of several in our relationship. Her belief in God helped her deal with various challenges, she would remain upbeat. You don't always have to go to heaven to meet an angel.

“ Mrs Starzl was my fifth grade teacher at Gehlen in LeMars. I just loved her. I remember playing with Debbie. Mrs Starzl was definitely a wonderful influence in my young life. I am in LeMars visiting Mom and saw the article in the paper. My condolences to the family. Jane Tentinger Schmidt Janer7@bellsouth.net
