“ To Millie, Reggie Jr, and Christina. There are no words that could express the emptiness that have felt and may feel from time to time. However, please rest assure that it does get easier to bare. His flesh may not be here but his spirit lives in everyone he have ever came in contact with. Cousin Reggie will be missed by all. I always listen to James Fortune "I;ll Trust Him" when I am missing Daddy the most and the words to this song always seem to sooth me. I hope it can do the same for you as well. Love you family. Carmela, Gloria, and family.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies. My heart goes out to the family. Death is something we will never get use to. In fact, God's Word refers to death as an enemy. (1 Corinthians 15:26) It is comforting to know that very soon our loving Heavenly Father, Jehovah God, will remove death once and for all and give us the opportunity to see our loved ones again here on the earth.

“ My Dearest Reggie, it brings me some comfort to know that you are resting in the arms of the Lord. Your body is totally healed. For this, I am so grateful. I truly, truly loved you so much and I am missing you always. God bless your sweet soul. Your loving wife.

“ Dearest Aunt Mil-Mil, Reggie and Christina- my heartfelt sympathy and thoughts are with you. Uncle Reggie is a true patriarch in our family and he will be lovingly remembered. His passion for heritage and fellowship have had a wonderful influence in my life. I am praying that your hearts be comforted by the reassurances of our faith at this difficult time.
