“ Mrs. Alexander, I have searched for many years trying to find you and to say thank you for everything. I wanted to thank you for your kindness and for the sharing of your home. As time passes, one begins to realize the people who were so important in their life. I have nothing but fond memories of you and your husband and especially of the kind words you spoke to me when I last saw you. I only wish I could have found you sooner, to thank you personally for making my life just a little bit better. Perhaps I'll get another chance in another life. Farewell!
