“ To Bobâ€TMs wife Carolyn, their children, family, and friends: I learned yesterday of Bob's passing and wanted to write to you to express our sadness and heartfelt condolences. I enjoyed many good times in my youth working at Becker Electric with Bob overseeing our work and his sharp sense of humor always brightening our day. He was a part of our extended family and now he, my father, and Bill Woomer are together in heaven above cracking jokes and sharing about the many good times and challenges they faced together. I am sorry for your loss and I hope you can find peace in the memory of your good times together and may your loving bond comfort you now and in the days ahead. Though he is deeply missed, he is certainly in a place of total love, acceptance, peace, and evergreen golf courses. I regret that Carol and I cannot be with you tomorrow and I've asked my brothers Bill and Pete along with Barbara to extend and convey our loving thoughts and prayers to you.

Sincerely, Jim and Carol Becker (Beckerjim@gmail.com)
