“ Frank and Brenda Powers
I met Bob at the Cork Street Pool, and became fast friends with him. We shared stories about High School and College football, and we were both fans of Virginia Tech. He would share his love of golf and gardening (which he always brought tomatoes, etc. to me). We will always remember the good times we had at the Pool. He was a true friend and we'll never forget him.

“ Bob was a friend to so many at the Cork St. Pool. He loved to share stories about family, hobbies, gardening, and all his life experiences. He was a gentleman who loved people and had such a giving heart. He was always bringing small gifts from his garden or treasures from the local thrift stores to friends at the pool. We shared an interest in duck decoys -he allowed me to paint 2 of the ones he had carved. And he let me photograph him and do some watercolor paintings of him carving his wooden decoys. He was a very special friend, and I feel so blessed to have known him. Love and miss you, Bob!

“ I knew Bob from the Cork St. pool and all of us will miss him. He was always so positive and made everyone feel better with his humor. He loved his family, garden, golf, fishing and "Duck Dynasty". He was truly a gentleman.

“ Hard to know what to say--Mr Braden (can't bring myself to call him "Bob"...since elementary school it's been 'Mr Braden'!) meant so much to me, to my entire family! I'm only sorry I didn't get to visit with him one more time; I hadn't seen him in a lot of years! My brother would often tell me funny things (Bob) would say and it always made me smile....I know you're with the Lord, Mr Braden! Rest in His Peace. With love, Teresa Kirch Carson
