“ I was deeply saddened by the news about the death of Robert. I just found out today, October 2, 2009. I am so very sorry. I have known Robert for about 19 years. Therefore, I feel that I have lost a friend as well as a co-worker. Robert was such a kind soul, and a great guy to work with. Robert will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Words fall short of expressing my sorrow for your loss. My heartfelt condolences go out to you and your family.

“ I have tried to write this several times but could not stop crying long enough to finish. To Susan and the kids my sympathy and love go out to you. Your Dad and Husband was a great guy and a good friend. Remember the funny things and laugh about them as often as you can. It is ok to cry and laugh at the same time, I know because I am doing it now. I realize that you have heard that God has a reason for everything and I am sure that he does, but at a time like this it is hard to think about what that might be. I can tell you this I thank God that almost thirty years ago a man named Robert Brann became my friend and I have enjoyed every minute since then that I have spent with Robert and Susan. It was something that Annette and I always looked forward to. God blessed me Thirty years ago when your Dad became my friend. I Love you all John.

“ Robert was a great friend and coworker... I was one of his informal mentors, and I remember spending hours...sometimes fairly late into the evening...in my office talking with him about everything...including promotion opportunities, career strategies, Susan, the kids, motorcycles, golf clubs, cars, 4-wheelers, medical stuff, marriage, past jobs, all kinds of things. They were great, often very heart-felt and emotional, talks that I will never forget. Nor will I ever forget the time he wore his Harley T-shirt, long wig, bandanna and shades to work for Halloween. He seemed oddly very comfortable in that outfit.

“ Susan, this is Audra Viar (Woody's wife). We have never meet and I would like to send you my deepest sympathies. I have experienced the death of a husband and I want to pass on this piece of advice. It does get easier with each passing day. You don't ever get over it but you do get through it one day at time and I wish you and your family the best that life has to offer. I would love to be there but life circumstances prevents me from being there. Audra

“ When we assemble to note the passing of one who, until so recently, lived among us, we do not mourn for the deceased. We mourn our loss; we sympathize with the sorrow of the bereaved. We search for good things to remember as solace. The departed never wholly leave us. We never wholly leave each other. And we remember. I have nothing but fond memories of Robert. He was a man to emulate and I send my condolences.
