“ Thank you for the warm and kind words. Bob always enjoyed spending time working on projects with you or going to the shooting range. Bob respected your opinion whenever he has questions regarding home improvement or just life in general. Bob leaves a big hole in our family that we can't fill. He was a loving husband, father, and grandfather to us. Words can't describe how sad we all feel.

“ Bobs kind and friendly personality will be missed in our community. He is my friend that I will truly miss. Bob was courageous while he fought and never once gave into his sickness. To the end he was an island in a storm. He is a patriot we can all take a lesson from. He loved his family and country with no bounds. Bob always talked about his family with intense pride and always had a special excitement in his voice when he talked about his grand daughters. His love was his family and Bob will live on in the hearts and minds of his family and friends. We all will miss Bob, I will miss Bob.
