“ Our deepest condolences to you and your family Claris. We will always remember Bob in our prayer.

January 26, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Claris, It's so hard to think that when I next see you that Bob will not be on your side. I guess then and only then will I accept that he is really gone. I have photo's & fun memories of the last time we were last together. The boys and I are sad for you and Adrian for your loss. "Bob you are now free of pain and suffering at last. May your soul rest in peace". Big Kiss. Bernadine & The Boys.

“ Adrian, Condolences to you and your family on the transiting of your Dad to his eternal home. No longer will he experience pain and discomfort, but is seated now in the presence of God accompanied with the saints and angels. Embrace and cherish the memories in the lonely times and you'll find he's just thoughts away.

January 14, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Adrian: I am sorry to hear about your father's passing. I know that you now have an angel seated in heaven looking after you. I will always remember the love he shared for you, your brothers and your mother. As well as his salsa steps. May god comfort you and your family at this time. I will keep you in my prayers. Love you much, Atia

“ Adrian, Claris, and Family, When I first met Bob our conversations immediately gravitated toward Foreign Service and his posting in Trinidad. From that moment on, I always looked forward to Bob's stories about his life and experiences around the world. I will miss hearing these stories but I know his memory and legacy lives on through you all!! Love Always, Danielita

“ Adrian, I am sending this note of encouragement and comfort because I know that you believe in a Healing God. While the sorrow may be great now, it will one day be replaced with a sense of peace that can only come from our Healer. Your Father is healed now and resting where we hope to be one day. Peace & Comfort to you and your Mother and family! Rhonda

“ I am shocked and saddened to hear of Bob's passing. I worked with him when he was assigned to Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago and remember the great fun we had at his after work parties. I will miss him. To Bob's family I hope the good memories of him sustain you during this difficult time.

“ Dear Adrian and Claris: I join with so many others who knew Bob in offering my deepest sympathy on his passing. Although it is little consolation at this sad time, it should be of some satisfaction to know that in his passing you can celebrate the end of a very long and productive life. The measure of a life well-lived is not in how much money one has or what possessions they have accumulated, but rather through the lives they touched and the sorrow they leave behind. If the outpouring of sympathy on his loss is any indication, and it most certainly is, you can proudly and confidently say that his indeed was a life well-lived. May you find peace and comfort in knowing that his loss is felt by all who knew and loved him. In Sympathy, Gina “ Adrian, may the love of God cover and comfort you during your time of grief.

January 09, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ To Adrian and family: Jesus said, "Do not let your heart be troubled . . . In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you so; for I go to prepare a place for you. If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, there you may be also." Jesus' word never returns void. Therefore, take comfort in knowing that death is swallowed up in victory in order that HIS promise can be fulfilled. May God comfort you in your period of mourning.

“ Adrian: "A rose once grew where all could see, sheltered beside a garden wall. And, as the days passed swiftly by, it spread it's branches, straight and tall. One day, a beam of light shone through a crevice that had opened wide. The rose bent gently towards it's warmth, then passed beyond to the other side. Now, you who deeply feel it's loss, be comforted - the rose blooms there. It's beauty even greater now, nurtured by God's own loving care." --- Author Unknown---

“ When you are sorrowful look again in your heart, and you shall see that in truth you are weeping for that which has been your delight.
~Kahlil Gibran Adrian, My deepest condolences to you and your family. May you find comfort in knowing that he is in a place where pain and suffering are no more.

“ Know that death can never kill the love and the life you shared with Bob; for death is but the opposite of birth into the physical...not of Life nor of Love. Take solace in knowing that Life never dies because Life is an eternal Gift from the All That Is...the I AM. "What the caterpillar thinks is the end of life, the butterfly knows as a beginning." Bob has now re-emerged into the non-physical as pure Light. Shalom. Be still and know that I AM God.

“ Adrian, when your Dad sailed over the horizon, grief cried: "There he goes." On the other side of the horizon, just beyond human view, heavenly souls welcomed your Dad saying: "Here, he comes -- God's good and faithful servant." May God make His face to shine upon you and your family, lift up your countenance, and grant you and your family His peace. Be comforted in knowing that your Dad yet lives in the Omnipresence of God.

“ This was posted by the Cavalier Cyber Prayer Warriors: Cavaliers, Cyber Prayer Warriors, Brother Knights, Friends and Families who pray with us - a call to prayer 2011-01-03 Cavalier ROBERT DANCE, PMA â€~68 - a prayer for R.I.P. â€œOur Almighty and Eternal God, the Master of Life, we praise You and we adore You. With deep sadness, we pray for the eternal repose of the soul of ROBERT fondly called Bob or Dencio by his fellow Cavaliers and Mistahs. Indeed, he was an extraordinary American cadet who chose the Philippine Military Academy for his cadetship training and won the hearts of all people he came in contact with by his affable personality and warm character, always expressing his pride at being a PMA graduate. Lord, we implore You to post his Guardian Angel at the heavenly gate to escort Him as he approaches Your throne. Eternal life grant unto him, O God, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he now rest in Your peace. We also pray for the family he left behind. May they take comfort in the thought that ROBERT is on his way to a better place. Amen.”
