“ I will miss you Uncle Rodney. You and Dad will always be the towering pillars of our family. Even as my hair is beginning to show Frosting, I still had to look up to both of you. Say hi to Aunt Ann for me. Jeff

“ To Rodney's daughters, It is no coincidence that I thought of your dad today, searched his name, and sadly found this site. Your dad and I worked simultaneously at Fairfax Hospital in the 70's while I was in its Community Relations department. I was new to it all, and my boss asked him to teach me photo developing in his print shop. He was so patient with me, and we had lots of laughs about my attempts, and ultimately also successes. He had great printing skills, knew those huge machines inside and out, and kept so many publications on schedule and looking good. We lost touch when I went to work elsewhere and our lives moved on. Rodney spoke of you all and your mom often with warmth and love. I just wanted to let you know. My heartfelt thoughts to you, Kathleen Sampson
