“ Roger was a gentle soul at the center of every Office sports pool. Nevertheless, he got the job done at DOL. He helped create an index to an employee protections digest used extensively to identify precedential transit employee protections decisions. At the end of his career, he moved to the Bureau of Labor Statistics where he was the go-to guy for BLS publications. Roger is one of the more pleasant memories of my DOL career.

“ Roger and I worked together at the US Department of Labor for many years. He loved sports and his family, and he was a warm and generous friend to all. I will miss his optimism and enthusiasm.
