“ Darryl was my real life super hero! We could count on him to entertain us with his powerful karate kicks and make us crack up laughing with his animal noises. Darryl had the biggest heart of anyone I've ever known, besides our daddy. That must be where he got it. I love and miss you Darryl ❤️

I fondly remember Darryl as a comic; full of laughs and appearing so carefree. He was loved by his family. I'm so sad for his family and friends but I know him now as an angel in heaven. Thank you Jesus for sharing Darryl with us on earth. 🙏❤️

I used to love to watch Tarzan no matter which one it was , Darryl noticed it one day and said " that's not the real Tarzan ,that's the college Tarzan"....

“It's almost impossible for me to think of life without Darryl. He has always been there, teaching me as a child , giving me much appreciated advice as a young man , helping me with many projects as we aged together. All in all , my loving advocate as I've walked this trying world until now. DARRYL the name that solidified "Brother" to me.

The flowers in the background of this picture were his gift to our Mother on Mother's Day along with the tree. He always remembered. Gail
