“ Mom, Karen and Richard, I am sorry that I couldn't be there but you are all in my prayers and thoughts. I have many memories of growing up at your house and of Dad and I am so very glad to have them. He was a strong, intelligent man. He always had stories to share (although looking back I probably should have paid more attention than I did at the time) and was always supportive of us and our dreams. I will never forget our summer in Texas and our trip to New York to visit Richard. Some of the very best times of my life were spent at your house and with your family. Thank you. I will miss dad and his advice - not that I ever really took it but it was nice to have! I love you and I miss you everyday.

“ Joanne, Karen and Richard There are no right words to say at a time like this just know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy.
