

Rosa Marie Davis

June 12, 1970 - June 9, 2026

Rosemary Davis was a woman of unwavering faith, remarkable strength, and boundless love. Deeply connected to God throughout her life, she lived with a profound spirituality that guided her actions, sustained her through challenges, and inspired those fortunate enough to know her.

To many, Rosemary's exterior reflected a toughness that could weather any storm. She faced life's hardships with determination, resilience, and courage. Yet beneath that strong exterior was a heart overflowing with kindness, compassion, and love. Those closest to her knew her loving spirit, generous nature, and the warmth she shared so freely with family and friends.

Rosemary's legacy is one of faith, strength, devotion, and love. She leaves behind cherished memories that will continue to comfort and inspire all who knew her. Though she will be deeply missed, her family takes solace in knowing that her spirit lives on in their hearts and in the faith she held so dearly.

May Rosemary rest peacefully in God's eternal embrace.

Rosemary is survived by her loving husband, Rig, and her beloved son, Deigo, along with family and friends whose lives were forever enriched by her presence

If you wish to make a contribution in her memory, please consider gifting to the Army Engineer Spouses Club: Army Engineer Memorial Awards
