“ My condolences to my Uncle Joe's family. I'm sorry to hear of his passing so many months after. I guess it is difficult for family to know about everyone in someone's life. My father, Jesus Millora and Uncle Joe (that is what I called him) were good friends in the Philippines. Uncle Joe was also my godfather. If someone from his family could contact me, I will send the information to my parents. They want to send flowers to his resting place. Thanks, Lea

“ As I was about to drive to California one early morning sometime ago in the 80s, Joe showed up at my driveway ready to assist in any way he could. He helped me pack things into my car, and gave me some practical advice. That was typical of this man--a loyal friend, a devoted worker for charitable causes and a dedicated athlete. Thanks for everything, my friend. I wish I had been by your driveway to see you off this time. But since you're there already, please enjoy heaven!

“ Joe Subido was my Marketing Professor at the University of the East. He was a popular professor and looked up to by his students me included. In the US, I met him on the tennis courts. Like being my professor, he became my tennis coach. I will miss him very much. My deep condolence to his family. Aura Arcilla

He also was my Marketing professor at UE Manila. He made good impressions on me, how to comport myself as a gentleman, how to dress well. He is one professor I still remember for the good reasons. -- Rolando S de Guzman.

“ My condolences to the Subido family. A unique person who gave his 110% support and advise to tennis and he extended that by donating his time and money to help the kids in the Philippines with cleft lips. Joe was one of the nominees for the TFC Bayaning Pilipino Award in 2006. He will be missed dearly. May he rest in peace.

“ Psalm 23: Shepherd me O God, Beyond my wants beyond fears from death unto life. God is my shepherd so nothing shall I want, I rest in the meadows of faithfulness and love, I walk by the quiet waters of peace. Gently you raise and heal my weary soul, You lead me by pathways of righteousness and truth, My spirit shall sing the music of your name. Though I should wander the valley of death, I fear no evil, for you are at my side, Your rod and your staff, my comfort and my hope. You have set me a banquet of love in the face of hatred, Crowning me with love beyond my power to hold. Surely your kindness and mercy follow me all the days of my life. I will dwell in the house of the Lord forevermore

“ *Joe was an enthusiastic tennis friend of the community... but more than that he was a presence in the larger community of Filipino-Americans, looked up to especially by his younger friends. His serious and thoughtful aspect was often hidden behind a gregarious exterior... He shall be missed by all. Condolences to the loved ones he's leaving behind, especially Joel, Mariel and Adrian. “ Joe was such a great guy. I really enjoyed being his tennis student. I know many people benefited from the work he did. He and I shared a similar background. I'm sure he will be missed by many. I know it makes me sad just to write this but know he is in a better place.

“ My wife Tess and I would like to extend our warmest condolences to Joe's family and relatives. Joe was a good friend of many years, and a tennis teaching pro to both of us. We will surely miss him and continue to pray for the eternal repose of Joe's soul. We will also include his name with the prayers of the deceased at the next Monthly Filipino Mass at St. Bernadette's where we always saw Joe. Rolly & Tess Saldana

“ Tata Joe was such a patient and persistent tennis instructor. He always made sure you use the basics. He will be surely missed in our tennis community in Virginia. May his memories be held in the hearts of those who cared and loved him. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon him.
