

Ross Nicholas Morgan

September 24, 1952 - September 1, 2013

Formerly of Phoenix, New York. Ross was a proud member of the United States Army Band "Pershing's Own," stationed at Ft. Myer, Virginia. He was the unit's first Command Sergeant Major and honorably served as a tubist in the band for 35 years. Survived by his wife Jane, daughters Virginia Nipper (Brandon), Anna and Elizabeth Morgan, mother Kathryn Morgan, sister Judy Williams (Dan), brother Andrew (Vicki), and three nephews, James and Matthew Williams and Jeremy Morgan. A funeral service will take place at the Ft. Myer War Memorial Chapel followed by interment at Arlington National Cemetery which will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ Ross Nicholas Morgan

October 27, 2022 at 09:45 PM

“ You and your family are in our thoughts and prayer. Love the Lewis family (Argyle, Pattie, Adam, Kimberly & Dan).

September 22, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Our sympathy to the Morgan Family. We hope and pray that you can find strength and encouragement in your memories of Ross. May God's love and compassion always be with you, The MacQueen Family

September 17, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ Anna and Beth, My prayers and love to you both. I know this is a hard time for and your family. It will be hard and at times very lonely for you both. Reach out to your family and friends and pray. God know has him in his care. Love, Roberta

September 06, 2013 at 12:00 AM