

Roxie Lynn Taggart

August 9, 1947 - October 21, 2021

Roxie Taggart, beautiful wife, mother, grammy, sister and friend, passed away on Thursday October 21, 2021 at the age of 74 years. She will be forever loved and missed by her husband, Kenneth Taggart; daughter, Chrissy (Danny) Burghard; sisters, Debbie (Dave) Hollandsworth and Tammie (Joe) Saffa; and her two grandchildren, Tyler and Cara Burghard, as well as by her niece and nephew, great nieces and nephews, extended family and friends.

She married her husband, Kenneth Taggart, and worked for the State of Virginia as an Administrative Assistant while raising her daughter. She enjoyed reading and crafting. She was a permanent fixture in her family's lives and would always have a huge hug and kiss for everyone she visited. Roxie was a devoted mother and grammy to her daughter and grandchildren and continues to influence their lives.

Cremation will take place at the family's convenience and her ashes will be spread at the beach in Topsail, NC, her favorite place to visit with her family.
