“ Grandpa was the greatest man I have ever known and my biggest inspiration in life. He never ceased to light up a room or make a situation as easy as possible with good humor and emotional support. Nobody else I knew was exactly like him and nobody else ever will be. He was beloved in life, and he will continue to be beloved as our family and friends remember all of our countless great times. Grandpa, I love you with all my heart and I definitely think that I'll see you again.

“ Sometimes you learn later in life how someone affected you. That is the way it was with my father. He inspired many and I didn't even know. His level of compassion and care for others successes was unmatched. He was also kind, funny, and always sharing a joke or moment. He let me be me and learn from my mistakes. He was proud and loving. Most of all, he was my Superman. He will always live on in our family stories. Isn't that really what life is about?
