

Ruth E. Hawranick

September 3, 1937 - January 9, 2020

Ruth Hawranick passed away, Thursday, January 9, 2020. Beloved wife of Theodore Hawranick; cherished mother of Cheryl Silva (James) and Theodore Hawranick (Gina); sister of Patricia Sprague; grandmother of Danielle Woodworth (Luiken) and the late Jamie Silva. She will truly be missed by many.

Ruth Hawranick was a graduate of St. Clair High School in St. Clair, Pennsylvania. She studied business at the Ford Business School in Pottsville, PA. then went to work for the Judy Kent Shipping Factory where she worked in office operations. In 1958 she met and married Ted Hawranick, and spent the next 30 years in the Army traveling the world through Europe, Asia and numerous places at home in the US. She was always an instrumental advocate in supporting the communities she lived in. She actively encouraged other wives involvement and participation in support activities, and also encouraged others and participated in sporting activities and community events among the families within the military. Ruth was an active leader in community based Goodwill type activities and in thrift shop type operations. The relationships she developed with foreign officer's wives contributed greatly to the good will and friendships with other countries. After her husband's retirement, she was still very actively involved with many community sporting activities including golfing and bowling.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Ruth's name to a charity of your choice.
