“ I met Ruth through a ministry group about a year and a half ago, and had the privilege of getting to know Ruth over many hours of zoom calls - talking, listening, praying together. She told THE BEST stories and was so witty and funny. She loved her family SO much, and she had one of the strongest faiths that I've known. My sympathy and condolences go out to her friends and family. I know she will be dearly missed.

“Ruth was one of my favorite people to work with. She was a proud mama and grandmother with pictures all over her wall of her grand babies. She loved to talk about them.

I was so happy to have the chance to see how good Ruth was with numbers. I always trusted the information she gave me because she could just see when a funding table didn't make sense. While I enjoyed working with future budgets, she always enjoyed reminding me that I was working with pretend money, and she actually had the real money! I will miss laughing wiring her and the fun we had working late together when we got stuck on spreadsheets or were working monthly charts at the last minute. And our occasional lunch together to celebrate a birthday.

Rest in Peace my friend. We will miss you!

“During our Wornick school Zoom events, Ruth was always there with sweet signs for Marlowe and Hailah, with her amazing energy and clear love for an additional way to connect with her granddaughters. May her memory be a blessing to all of those who knew her and adored her.

“ Deborah, Tracey, Harrison - Your mom was a wonderful friend and a blessing to others. She is greatly missed. Her wit and ability to say exactly what I needed to hear, when I needed to hear it, was a source of great encouragement - and refinement - for me. She was creative and bold. She was a steadfast woman who stood firmly for what she knew was right and endured valiantly in prayer for her beloved family.
