“ Dear Cernohosky family - I don't really know what to say, as I never met Ryan, and until yesterday when I came across his grave at Quantico National Cemetery yesterday while there to honor and one of our close friends who passed on April 5, 2015 I didn't know he existed.

Seeing that he was only a few months older than my youngest stepson touched my heart, and reading the comments here just breaks my heart for this amazing and young Warrior, and all who knew and loved him. My fiance' a Retired GySgt (USMC) was diagnosed with PTSD while on deployment in Afghanistan (2011), and I have seen first-hand the struggles and frustrations, and I just wanted to share with you that we have added all of you to our prayers. Being Warriors regardless of rank, etc. bonds my fiance' and your son in a very special way, and the Marine Corps is truly a family bond.

Watching the three young people who were sitting at your son's grave was a very touching sight, and we hope and pray that as you go through the days ahead you will find peace and comfort in the many wonderful memories of Ryan.

With Warm Thoughts & Respect,
GySgt. Aycock (USMC) retired & Dawne

“ I am dedicating a class at my yoga studio in Richmond Va in Ryan's memory. The class is a free class for Military Veterans and is designed for those who suffer the effects of PTSD. Ryan was a friend of my daughter. We thank him and his brother for their military service., Karen Levitt

“ Ryan was a special part of my daughter's life and therefore part of our family's life too. We will always remember his exuberance, laughter and good cheer. Hopefully the calm now, allows for many moments of loving reflection of who he was to you, his friends, and your family. Peace be with you.

“ To Ryan's family - I did not know Ryan, but saw his photo in the Post and sensed there was something special about him. Now I know I was right. I am so sorry for your loss of this fine young man. I am going to make a donation in his memory. May God bless and watch over all our service members, and show their loved ones how to get them the help they need.

“ To Ryan's family: I'm very sorry to hear about Ryan. I don't know if you remember little Paul Kurth, but I sure remember hanging out with Ryan. Whether is was elementary school, soccer practice, or cub scouts, I'll always remember all the laughs and fun times we had together. Throughout the years, whenever I heard of Ryan Cernohorsky I couldn't help but to think of those fond memories. Again, I'm so very sorry and my deepest condolences for your loss of such a wonderful man.

“ Mr. and Mrs. Cernohorsky, I had Ryan in my Psychology class at WSHS. While that was quite a few years ago, I can remember Ryan's ever present grin and laughter like he was just there. I've seen such an outpouring of grief, expressions of loss, and more importantly demonstrations of love, for a guy who never lost that special ability to make others smile and laugh, even when he may have been struggling to do so himself. I am so proud of the man Ryan grew into, thankful for his service, and honored to have had the opportunity to know him. Prayers to you, the family, and his friends for peace in your grief.
