“ So incredibly sad...Ryan was only 3 when I met him, his oldest sister after running into them with their father at church in Savannah, GA. I realize it's been a few years, but thru my own experiences with tragic death of a child, this hits very close to home for me. My sons are my everything & it isn't fair to parents to lose a child at any age. Thank God you had enough time with him at the end of his journey and were able to tell him how much you love him before he left this world for the next one. I'm sure you'll have a beautiful guardian angel watching over you! Again, I'm so sorry for your loss!
