Born December 10, 1947, in Alexandria, VA, she returned to the area this summer to continue to fight her cancer, with the aid and support of her only son, whom she adored, and was so very proud of.

“ I was very fortunate to be able to spend time with my sister from Jan 3 2017 till March 13 2017 while she underwent chemotherapy for her cancer. During that time we remenised about growing up and other great memories. We went out to eat at some of her favorite places as well as grilling out in her back area overlooking the intercostal waterway. She showed me all the great sites of Jupiter. I will forever remember those days. I loved my sister very much and will wait to see her again when my time to leave arrives Rick Lewis
