“ Sara the love you gave your children will always live in their hearts. I know you will always be there watching over them and protecting them from above, and you are to them the greatest love of all. You were a beautiful women and truly a loving mother. You will be missed by so many. My deepest sympathy to the children and the rest of your family. You are safe in God's hands and at peace and for that I am grateful.

“ Our heart goes out to all who knew Sara. She was a gentle and kind-hearted woman. A person who took the time for family and friends. To the children: your mom loved you so much. She dedicated her time, energy, and attention to you. She was completely devoted to giving you the very best of her and preparing you for life. As she is in heaven now, know that she is watching you from above and will always be in your heart. Our prayers are with you.

“ Jesus Christ's words to St. Faustina apply equally to Sara. Like St.. Faustina, Sara dedicated her life to others. "...there is no way to heaven except the way of the cross. I followed it first. You must learn that it is the shortest way.... I am giving you a share in those sufferings because of My special love for you and in view of the high degree of holiness I am intending for you in Heaven. A suffering soul is closer to My heart.”

“ Sara, God has you in his arms and using you now for his purpose. You are the greatest inspiration and the most amazing woman I have truly ever known. Your diligence as a mother is truly admirable. You constantly put others needs and desires before yours and to God you are a blessing. Your love for us all has been a blessing through our lives. I have truly grown as a person having you as a sister. I love you dearly and may God's blessings, grace, and mercy be bestowed upon Tyler, Allison, Ryan, and Ayden in there walk through this life.
