It was such a pleasure knowing Shelley. She is so missed. Her ability to embrace and the care for others, the steely determination in her eyes, and her humor will forever stay with me. Her life was a celebration of all things beautiful this universe has to offer.

*“My mission in life is not merely to survive, but to thrive; and to do so with some passion, some compassion, some humor, and some style.”

Shelley and Sam were over for lunch a few years ago, it was the first time she had met my family. Of course, she brought all kinds of fun gifts for the kids and was so excited explore them with them. They still remember her fondly as the bright spot in an otherwise boring adult lunch!

Love and thoughts for a kid at heart!

“ Shelley will always be remembered as the tiny fierce redhead that could change the course of anything with the lift of an eyebrow!

Whether it was work collaboration, chatting with her about how to provide support to wild doves who chose to nest on her porch, to the latest gardening fascination.... Conversations with her were never shallow nor boring....

This woman was (and still is) deeply loved, admired and respected...

My heart goes out to Sam & Jay.
